Archdiocesan Summer Collections for the Missions

The archdiocese has two totally separate collections for the missions every summer. For those new to the archdiocese, it may be confusing; for others, who are not new, it might still be confusing.

The first collection is called the "Mission Co-operative Collection." Every summer missionary speakers are welcomed into the archdiocese to speak about the mission they represent. Many speakers are priest representatives. Most come from outside the archdiocese, and even from out of the country. During the homily at all weekend Masses, the speaker introduces the mission he is representing and makes an appeal for financial support. This year on the weekend of August 10-11, Father Fredrick M. Kooro will be here to speak at each of the Masses. Father Korro is from the Catholic Diocese of Nakuru, Kenya.

The second summer collection is called the "Canadian Mission Appeal." It is taken each year in August. This year, the collection will be taken up during the weekend of August 17 and 18 at all the Masses in our parish. The collection has two purposes: first, to support the work of Catholic Missions in Canada (CMIC) for needy dioceses across Canada; secondly, to help support Toronto's two "sister" dioceses in financial need. One is in northern Alberta, called the Archdiocese of Grouard-McLennan centred in Grand Prairie, Alberta; the second is located in the Northwest Territories, called the Diocese of Mackenzie-Fort Smith, centred in Yellowknife, N.W.T Thank you for your generous donations.
