Dear brothers and sisters,

As we are going to step into the month of November, the first 2 days of the month are very important for us as Christians. This is because the Mother Church celebrates all Saints and All Souls. All Saints is celebrated on November 1st and All Souls on November 2nd.

All Saints: Being baptized Christians, we become children of God, brothers and sisters of our Lord Jesus, temples of the Spirit and heirs of the kingdom of heaven. As we inherit from our parents what they own; likewise, we God's children have inheritance in heaven. Our Ancestors, who are dead and gone have already inherited them in heaven.

Our loved ones who have gone to the Lord before us are saints. Even though they are not included in the litany of saints or announced as saints, they too are saints in heaven. If so, no difference between Saint Patrick in Heaven and your mom or dad in heaven.

My request for you is to pray to your loved ones in heaven so that they may intercede before God as St. Patrick does. If your parents led a wonderful and faithful Christian life, for sure they are in Heaven and you can pray to them and they may pray for you before God.

All Souls: In a special way, I encourage you to pray for our loved ones who are in the purgatory eagerly waiting to see God's face in heaven. Purgatory is a place where we go through a period of purification for our sins. Let us not forget all the souls suffering there to unite with God in heaven.

May God bless you! Fr. Silva
